

NAIDOC WEEK – FOR OUR ELDERS

BWHA's Fixture Round from 7-10 July will celebrate NAIDOC week and support our first nations culture. Our celebrations will include:

- Reading Book Nook and Artwork Station on Saturday 8 July, Level 1 of the BWHA Clubhouse at Downey Park, Windsor
- Indigenous Artwork displayed at Downey Park and Easts Hockey Tiger Turf in the form of goal net backboards on Field 1 at both venues – with the EHTT games featuring live on briZHockey on Saturday 8 July, and the back boards available for all fixtures from 7-10 July. Designed, made and installed by member Laurie Anno and his family
- Colouring in Competition for all Ages – Open now and will close at 9am, Monday 10 July. Colouring in Terms and Conditions listed below:
 - All members of the hockey community are welcome to enter our NAIDOC week colouring in competition
 - Two amazing prizes for the lucky winners of best illustration for Entry 1 & Entry 2
 - Entry 1 – “For the Elders” open to all High School and older ages
 - Entry 2 – “NAIDOC” colouring in sheet is open to all Primary School or younger ages
 - Entries can be submitted in person at the BWHA Clubhouse Reading Nook area on Level 1 on Saturday 8 July or via email to competitions@bwha.com.au . The competition colouring sheets will be available to download from the BWHA website, emailed to club contacts for distribution to their members or can be collected in person on Saturday 8 July from the Reading Nook at Level 1 of the BWHA Clubhouse.
 - Entrants to write their name, age and contact details on their drawing before submission.
 - Winners will be announced and contacted by Friday 14 July using the details provided on the entry. Winners will be selected by the BWHA Board of Management.

